Further Role Information

The role of District Commissioner is based around six key areas of leadership and management.

1. Providing direction – as an effective DC you will be required to:

- Lead by example to promote a co-operative culture of working in the District.
- Create a vision for the future development of the District that takes into account the strategic objectives of The Scout Association and the plans for your County.
- Develop a plan to realise the vision for the District, implement and regularly review it.
- Provide leadership, inspiration and motivation for all adults volunteering in the District.
- Ensure that everyone in the District follows the policies and rules of The Scout Association.
- Carry out regular one-to-one meetings and support adults who report directly to you.

2. Working with people – as an effective DC you will be required to:

- Develop good working relationships based on trust and Scout values with the adults in the District and with others in Scouting.
- Manage succession planning and identify the roles that you need to make the District work effectively and recruit suitable people into those roles.
- Allocate tasks to people within the District and monitor the progress of those tasks.
- Support adults in the District to develop by completing formal training requirements, learning on the job, trying out new skills and addressing problems affecting performance.
- Build a team spirit in the District and support the development of the team as a whole.
- Address conflict as it occurs within the District and reduce the likelihood of it happening through good communication and other methods.
- Run effective team meetings in the District and participate fully in the District Executive and County meetings.
- Ensure that adults in the District perform to agreed standards and if serious problems occur, the correct procedures are followed in consultation with the County Commissioner
- Appropriately acknowledge good work carried out in the District (through local events and the national Scout adult award scheme).
- Carry out effective reviews and re-assign or retire people if necessary.
- Build and maintain collaborative relationships with other relevant organisations in the District's local area.

3. Achieving results – as an effective DC you will be required to:

- Satisfactorily complete projects in the District for which you are responsible.
- Ensure that all the initiatives in the District are managed appropriately.
- With the District Executive Committee and the District Team ensure that Scouting is promoted locally.
- Build up an understanding of the young people in your local area and ensure that Scouting is promoted effectively to them.

- Monitor and review the progress that Group Scout Leaders are making against their targets and development plans.
- Have a robust District development plan in place and regularly review progress.
- Satisfactorily resolve problems and issues raised by adult and youth members of the District and by parents or carers of youth members in the District.

4. Enabling change – as an effective DC you will be required to:

- Support and encourage adults in the District to think of new and creative ways to improve the District.
- Be enthusiastic about new ideas, give constructive feedback on those ideas and encourage and support further work on them.
- Communicate your vision for the future of the District and lead people through changes that this vision requires.
- Develop effective plans to implement change and then carry them out, working together with relevant members of the District.
- Recognise the contribution of others towards change and improvement.

5. Using resources – as an effective DC you will be required to:

- As part of the District Executive Committee, ensure that appropriate financial measures are in place.
- As part of the District Executive Committee, ensure that there is an adequate income for the District including the identification of other income sources such as grants.
- Work with the District Executive Committee and Group Scout Leaders to ensure that Scouting in the District is safe.
- Work with the District Executive Committee and the District Team to ensure that the District has sufficient physical resources to support its work with youth members.
- Work with the District Executive Committee and the District Team to minimise the negative impact and maximise the positive impact that the District has on the environment.
- Make decisions about matters within the District based on the best available information.
- Ensure that all adults in the District have the right information provided in a timely manner and in the most effective way.

6. Managing your time and personal skills – as an effective DC you will be required to:

- Agree realistic goals and targets with the County Commissioner for the development of the District that work towards The Scout Association's strategic objectives.
- Consider the future requirements of your role then identify the skills and knowledge that you need to develop or improve and the steps you will follow to do so.
- Regularly check how you use your time and identify possible improvements so that you focus on the goals and priorities that you have agreed with the County Commissioner.
- Ask other adult volunteers for feedback about how you carry out your role and act on it.
- Attend National, Regional and County meetings, workshops and events.
